

Arthur Wint Centenary Scholarship Application form

Section A: Introduction

Arthur Wint is the first Jamaican to win an Olympic gold medal in the 1948 Games in Manchester England. His early athletic years were rewarded with success as he won gold in the 1938 PanAm Games. Wint has also served the medical fraternities of Britain and Jamaica and also served as Jamaica's High Commissioner to Britain. His name today is one of the greatest Jamaican names known internationally and Jamaica can truly boast that Arthur Wint is a true son of the soil. In an effort to honour the memory of this great man also known as the "Gentle Giant", the Ministry of Culture, Gender, Entertainment and Sport and GC Foster College for Physical Education and Sport wish to initiate the Arthur Wint Centenary Scholarship. The Scholarship will honour the legacy of Arthur Wint and facilitate the success of future sportsmen and women.
